

What happens when one state invades another state? A marine vessel captured, or nuclear disarmament obligations are breached?

Find out at this year's Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition!

What is the Jessup?

The largest and oldest international moot court competition in the field of international law: represent a State before the International Court of Justice.

How does it work?

You will be a member of a team of five students and will compete with 20 other German universities to earn your place in the International Finals, in Washington, D.C., in April 2023!

Interested? Visit the Information Event!

Monday, 30 May 2022, 18.00h s. t., Room E23

Deadline for applications: 12 June 2022

Requirements to apply:

Interest for and (preferably) knowledge in international law, good English skills, high degree of motivation and willingness for team work.

If you wish to apply, please send an E-Mail to jessup@humboldt-moot.de including:

A letter of motivation, a CV (both in English) & an overview of academic achievements